

FOREST FIRES SWEEPING KENTUCKY

HEAVY DAMAGE RESULTS FROM RAGING BLAZE

Conflagrations Are Whipped to Gravelly Menacing Proportions by Stiff Winds—Western Part of State Hit Hard.

(By The Associated Press)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—Whipped to menacing proportions by near gale winds and coming at a time when prolonged dry weather had reduced brush and grass to a tinder-like condition, forest fires were raging at widely divergent points in Kentucky today.

Volunteer fire fighters at Irvine, Estell county, where two mountains were reported to be ablaze, early today had succeeded in completing a belt of plowed ground around 700 crude oil tanks and thus apparently had removed imminent danger of the flames reaching 10,000,000 gallons of oil in storage.

Seven houses in that section had been destroyed and guards were watching to prevent sparks from the fires starting blazes in Irvine and the adjacent town of Raveanna.

In western Kentucky, McLean county was hard hit, a number of farm houses and buildings had been destroyed, the towns of Island and Sacramento had been threatened and older schoolboys had been excused from classes to aid in fighting the flames.

Near Louisville in Jefferson county, grass and brush fires were believed under control after having swept an area three by six miles and causing heavy damage to orchards, fences and standing timber.

Reports from Tompkinsville told of extensive damage in the Cumberland Valley in Monroe and Cumberland counties and in Lincoln county the Stanford fire department had gone to the hill section to assist volunteer fire fighters.

An estimate of the loss resulting from the fires was unobtainable.

REPUBLICANS GET CONTROL OF CONGRESS

Final Returns Trickling in From Doubtful Favorable to G. O. P.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Final returns from the states and districts trickling in today, it appears that President Coolidge had carried North Dakota and probably New Mexico, and that the political line-up in the new Congress would be as follows:

Senate—Republicans, 58; Democrats, 40; Farm-Labor, 1; vacancy, 1 (Connecticut).

House—Republicans, 248; Democrats, 184; Farm-Labor, 3; Socialists, 2.

At adjournment of Congress in June, there were 51 Democrats and 225 Republicans in the House and 25 Democrats and 225 Republicans in the Senate. The House was divided into 100 Democrats and 125 Republicans, and the Senate into 50 Democrats and 50 Republicans.

TOWN TOPICS

Prospects for necessary additions to the city home are bright in the light of action taken by the council finance committee which is recommending to the council the appropriation of $5,000 or sufficient to build two living rooms and adequate porches at the present terminal points of the two wings The Public Welfare committee had asked for $8,000 in order to provide four more dormitories but it has been found that an appropriation of $5,000 will not only provide the major present needs but also allow for the development of four rooms on the upper floor.

The traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce will hold a meeting at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon at which time G. A. Bell, manager of the Danville Traffic Bureau, will make a report on the result of his recent trip to Richmond and Norfolk where he went to investigate certain rate structures in the hope of being able to bring about concessions to Danville shippers. He returns, it is understood, with certain improvements being made.

Considerable interest is already being manifested in the forthcoming visit to Danville of Gutzon Borglum, the noted Southern sculptor, who is to make an address at Rison Park school next Tuesday night at eight o'clock. He is being brought here by the Parent-Teachers Association at the High School and he will bring first-hand information on the progress being made on the heroic carving on the side of Stone Mountain near Atlanta. On this broad expanse of granite, said to be the largest in the world, is already appearing in tremendous proportions the peerless leaders of the Confederacy on horseback. The undertaking is a noble one, the largest of its kind ever attempted.

Corporation court adjourned at half past noon today for the week-end and a jury which throughout the week-end has been engaged in the trial of Mary Moyer, a negroess for maliciously wounding Sallie Wyatt convicted her of simple assault, imposing a fine of $25. Most of the cases have been disposed of. The petit jury was ordered to report at 10 o'clock Monday morning. No cases were tried yesterday evening.

Efforts are being made by the Chamber of Commerce to eliminate confusion in dates of meetings which from time to time cause a division of attendance. The secretary of the organization has written a letter to every club and organization in Danville asking it to notify the Chamber of Commerce two weeks in advance of any projected meetings in order that a calendar may be kept and referred to when meetings are in contemplation. This community time table will be made up as of the first and fifteenth of each month. Mr. Diggs said this morning that he has endeavored not to miss any organization but that with the suggestion and send him data on proposed meetings.

Jury Wanted to Get Look at Baby

(Chicago Tribune Service.)
DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—A Dublin jury trying an action for seduction made an unusual request when considering a decision of several jurors, it asked to see the baby born as the result of the seduction with a view to ascertaining the features with those of the alleged father. The judge told the request to the counsel, one side agreeing to the request and the other side objecting. The judge said the law was doubtful of the subject and as one side had objected he could not order the baby into court.

THREE COUNTIES MISSING.

With official returns still lacking from Charlotte, Carroll and Grayson counties which are usually slow to report, the official returns from Danville, Pittsylvania, Henry, Halifax, Patrick and Franklin counties show the following totals for all candidates in Tuesday's election:

Davis and Bryan, 10,522; Coolidge and Daves, 4,151; La Follette Wheel, 391; Johns and Reynolds, 5; Hooker, 11,534; Davis, 3,474; Glass, 11,818; Deak, 2,818; Riker, 226; Whitehead, 12,288; DeHart, 2,632.

YOKOHAMA GROWS

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 7.—Yokohama is gradually coming back to its pre-earthquake size. Census figures show that 340,000 persons now live in the city, while the month after the earthquake more than a year ago the population had dropped to 250,000. The present population is within 100,000 of the old mark.

WEATHER FORECAST

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Virginia: Increasing cloudiness to night, rain and slightly warmer in the west portion Saturday and Sunday. Rain, colder in central and western portions.

North Carolina: Increasing cloudiness, probably followed by rain late tonight and Sunday in west portion, warmer in extreme west portion tonight, cooler Saturday in central and west portions.

KING GEORGE HOLDS COUNCIL WITH BALDWIN

New Government Wins Favorable Reception From British Papers

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 7.—King George today received the ministers of the retiring labor government, who handed over their seals of office at a ceremony which attracted little public attention. The crowd which is usually present in the vicinity of Buckingham palace displayed more interest in the changing of the bright uniform guard than the arrival and departure of the fallen cabinet ministers.

Later the king held a council with Premier Stanley Baldwin and the members of his cabinet at which the custom of kissing the sovereign's hand was carried out.

The new cabinet gets on the whole very favorable reception from the London morning newspapers, even the opposition organs finding grounds for approval of many of the appointments. It is universally remarked that the ministry is much stronger than Mr. Baldwin's last administration, although the Times while admitting this, regrets the inclusion of many former office holders and says:

"The public is looking with almost pathetic anxiety for the emergence of new leadership of matter."

The appointment of Winston Churchill to succeed such a dominant post as that of chancellor of the exchequer naturally attracts the most attention of the commentators, who remark upon the courage and independence shown by the premier in disregarding the inevitable hostility which the selection of a brilliant and conservative ranks. The choice itself is nowhere condemned and by several newspapers is variously described as "welcome," "sound" or "excellent."

Some misgivings, however, are expressed lest his inacceptability in all sections of the party render cooperation difficult. While the ultra-conservative Morning Post "hesitates to applaud" the appointment, saying that although Mr. Churchill is a brilliant debater and orator, his boldness and revolutionary spirit can only be fought by constructive statesmanship based on such qualities as honesty of character and sympathetic understanding.

The exclusion of Sir Robert Horne is regarded by most of the papers, but his refusal of the ministry of labor according to the Times "hardly so sensational as it has been depicted."

Undoubtedly, however, putting Churchill where he has aroused the indignation of the "die hard" conservatives as reflected in some of the political screeds this morning, Sir Robert feels any pique, it is impossible to say and it is equally known whether he would have accepted the exchequer if it had been offered him. He was not prepared to relinquish his big business interests, with a reputed income of 15,000 pounds sterling for 100 pounds sterling. He is said to have been offered 100 pounds sterling. He is said to have been offered 100 pounds sterling.

PROMINENT U. S. WOMEN IN PARIS TO GET DIVORCE

List Include Wife of Senator Gerry and Mrs. Alice Allen

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, Nov. 7.—The latest list of cases filed for hearing in the divorce court contains the names of seven American couples, says the Paris edition of the Chicago Tribune. Among the petitioners are Mrs. Peter Gerry, wife of the late Senator Gerry, and Mrs. Alice Erskine Allen, of Hempstead, N. Y., wife of Horace Bigelow Allen.

Mrs. Peter Gerry was before her marriage in May, 1910, Miss Mathilde Townsend, of Washington and Philadelphia. She is noted for her beauty and has for some time been among the leaders of society in Washington, New York and Newport. Senator Gerry, elected to the Senate in 1916, is well known as a society man, polo player, lawyer, scientist and philanthropist.

Mrs. Allen is a daughter of the late Edward Erskine Gwynne, a nephew of the late Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. She married Mr. Allen in 1919 after he had completed his service with the American army.

RADIO-CLICKS CAMERA

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A radio wave flashed across the ocean from England last night set off a powder flashlight, clicked a camera and made a photograph in the Grand Central palace at a radio exposition.

Major J. G. Harbord, president of the Radio Corporation of America; Helen Keller and Harold Bolster, director of the exposition, were photographed by the unseen radio photographer, who was stationed in Carnarvon Wales.

BOOZE SHIPMENT ARRIVES WITH BRICK BALLAST

Drug Stores Find It Hard to Get Wed Goods Through Without Tampering

Another instance of fraud in the shipment of bonded whiskey from government storage tanks was revealed here today when examination was made of a shipment of five cases of stimulants sent by express to Patterson's drug store. The shipment included five cases, each containing two cases of liquor. Two of the cases had been tampered with and when the boxes were opened, it was found that several pints had been extracted and twelve pounds of brick ballast had been put in to give it the necessary weight. In another shipment it was found that the seals covering the necks of eight pints had been broken. The liquor "disappeared" from the bottles. Enquiry reveals that such instances are by no means rare. Not long ago a shipment was opened and found to contain several cases of water. Examination of the flasks revealed the seals intact. The liquor thieves in this instance had cut a round hole in the bottom of the flask by a blow torch, melting the wax and the cork in the bottom and the glass plugs reinforced and fused.

Where do the frauds take place? That is the question that the government agents are trying hard to find out. In this instance the liquor was shipped from the government plant at Frankfort, Ky. It was routed to Danville by way of Atlanta. Just why efforts were made to tamper with the shipment is not known. The liquor is removed in transit and that thieves in some way secure access to the baggage cars and secure the loot while it is on the way to its destination. The Express Company, however, exercises unusual care it is said, and at every station where a stop is made the cases of liquor are weighed to determine if contents of the cases have been tampered with. In the present instance, apparently the thieves knew of this process and for that reason inserted the building bricks so as to camouflage the loss of weight.

The Southern Railway underpass when a loaded truck stopped quickly and, apparently, Col. White in an effort to avoid striking the truck, ran the right of way of the road and struck the fifteen-foot embankment before he knew it. Captain Grenier does not believe the car was moving at an excessive speed but that at an excessive speed was the result of an effort to avoid a rear-end collision.

A farmer named Pryon and a Reidsville man named Cook, both carrying with them a gun, were on their side against a stump. To the stump was attached barbed wire and it was this which mangled the throats of the two men. The position of the car was such that Col. White's head was caught between the back of the seat and the fence post and he was strangled. Captain Grenier says he is sure that the three men moved the heavy car sufficiently to give the mangled colonel breathing space. Pryon, a man of unusual physical strength is said to have literally torn the stump from the earth.

Mrs. White was found bleeding and crumpled up on the floor with some of the baggage which had been in the tonneau littered about her. Both the injured men were carried to Captain Grenier's car and he hastened with them to the hospital. Pryon in the meantime took charge of the baggage and personal effects which included some valuable papers, and also removed such portable equipment in the car to his home. Yesterday the car was dragged to the road and was found not to be damaged excessively. The steering apparatus was found intact, it is said.

The traffic accident has resulted in numerous offers of personal assistance to Mrs. White from many Danville people with their customary generosity and desire to be of service to those in affliction. Many have called at the hospital but Mrs. White's condition is such that she must have absolute quietness. She is suffering not only from the pain of lacerations and from the shock incidental to such an accident but from great mental distress.

Advices received by Mr. Townes early this afternoon were that relatives would arrive on train No. 35 this afternoon to make arrangements for the funeral.

Col. White, it develops, was a member of the Danville Fire Department.

Spectacular Chase of Fugitive Seen Yesterday Evening

A police automobile, three police officers, a motorboat and a railway switch engine all took part yesterday evening in the pursuit of a fugitive from justice of greater importance. Sergeant Edwards and Officer Nordström and Reid receiving a "tip" that the man was lurking in the vicinity of Dundee, were carried by Police Magistrate C. K. Carter to the scene. Jones, a stranger, was on a hill from which point he could observe all comers. It was impossible for the officers to drive close to him because the road was too narrow. The fugitive, however, he started running and made for a creek with the officers in full cry. In the meantime, Nordström turned his car and sought to head him off in another direction, but this could not be accomplished as the runner struck for the railway. The crew of the switch engine climbed on board and the locomotive which had a full head of steam, was given a wide throttle and clanked its way up the track, rapidly closing down the distance. The chase ended near Purdum's farm where Jones was captured by the officers and train crew. It was soon discovered that he was not the man the police first thought he was but it was recalled that a charge in Pittsylvania county is pending against him and he will be held.

EGAN TO COACH HURLERS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Ben Egan, former Baltimore catcher, who aided in the development of Babe Ruth, Ernie Shore, Jack Benley and Robert Groves, has been secured by the Brooklyn National League Club to serve as pitching coach and assistant to Manager Robinson.

COLONEL WHITE DIES OF HURTS IN AUTO WRECK

Retired Marine Corps Officer Succumbs at Early Hour at Hospital

Colonel H. K. White, 63, of Washington, D. C., with his wife were injured Wednesday afternoon while coming to Danville from Southport, N. C., close above the State line, died at Edmunds Hospital at two o'clock this morning.

His condition during the course of yesterday became rapidly worse, oedema of the lungs setting in, which with a chronic anemic condition, produced death. Shock of the accident aggravated the complaints which had caused his retirement from the United States Marine Corps. The wounds suffered about the jaw and throat being in themselves not necessarily fatal. Mrs. White, badly gashed about the throat, is not considered seriously ill though the shock of her husband's death has had severe effect.

Disposition of Col. White's remains remained uncertain this morning, pending the arrival of relatives who have been notified. Mrs. Thomas S. Thompson, of Lynchburg, a sister of Mrs. White is expected here today. Also Captain Thompson from Washington. A sister, Mrs. White in Danville, Ky. has also been apprised of the fatal termination of the accident and is expected here today. F. W. Townes who has charge of the remains said this morning that he was without advice. Probably, however, the remains will be taken to Washington and interment will probably take place with military honors in Arlington cemetery.

Anxiety on the part of attending physicians became pronounced yesterday afternoon. Throughout Wednesday night and early Thursday morning the hospital reported no cranial fracture, the belief prevailed that Col. White would recover. The complication which began to manifest itself could not be offset.

Captain C. A. Grenier, of Boston, Mass., who was on his way from Pinhurst to Danville, and who, by coincidence also is an officer in the United States Marine Corps, was driving a Marine Corps car when the accident occurred. He is widely known and respected in military and social circles in Washington and the South. He was a graduate of the United States Military Academy and a classmate of General Barnett. He was retired from active service eleven years ago but volunteered for service during the World War, during which period he had charge of court martial. He retired again but was recalled to take charge of naval record. His health, however, compelled definite retirement once more.

One of the men who saw the accident and who with others probably saved Col. White from immediate death in the wreck, abandoned his personal plans to return to service in the United States Army and will probably remain in Danville for several days. He states that Col. White's Packard had crossed the State line and was sweeping the road when the accident occurred. The Southern Railway underpass when a loaded truck stopped quickly and, apparently, Col. White in an effort to avoid striking the truck, ran the right of way of the road and struck the fifteen-foot embankment before he knew it. Captain Grenier does not believe the car was moving at an excessive speed but that at an excessive speed was the result of an effort to avoid a rear-end collision.

'MA' FERGUSON PREPARING TO GET ON JOB

Will Take Advice of Husband and Give Plenty of Receptions

(By The Associated Press)
TEMPLE, Tex., Nov. 7.—Advice of her husband will be taken by Mrs. Miriam Amanda Ferguson, governor-elect of Texas, "just as I will take the advice of any citizen of Texas interested in the welfare of the state," she said at her home here.

Her happiness unconfined, unfurled by the round of gaieties and congratulatory celebrations of which she has been the center, yet cognate of the responsibility that will be hers for two years, "Ma" Ferguson is looking forward to her inauguration day.

"I expect to be governor, just as any man," Mrs. Ferguson said.

Her title she continued would be "just governor, I guess, for no other title would do. The title 'madame governor' would be out of place."

"I guess my daughter Dorrace will be the first lady of the state and she will be the supervisor of the mansion and Jim, my husband, will be an interested spectator," Mrs. Ferguson said.

There will be no material changes in the daily routine, she said. There will be entertaining, but Dorrace will be hostess.

"I know there is a responsibility to be shouldered," said the governor-elect, "but I recall how hard Jim worked when he was governor, and the office has its cares and trials, but I am not worried. I expect to take the advice of my husband, just as I will take the advice of any citizen of Texas interested in the welfare of the state. No one should be so foolish as to believe that one could tackle such a task alone."

Mrs. Ferguson punctured another fallacy about herself when she declared that she does not do all the cooking for the family and does not intend to do it while she is governor.

"Yes, I believe Jim has been indicated by the election," she said, "reference to her husband's impeachment from the governor's office, or rather I believe that he has been vindicated for the wrong that they have tried to accuse him of."

She has a large number of applications for state positions, she said, including every office at her command.

Armistice Day Disorders Result in Manifestos Being Issued Terming Attacks of Fascist on Ex-Soldiers as Unwarranted—Action by King Sought

(By The Associated Press)
CHIASSO, Italy-Swiss Frontier, Nov. 7.—In consequence of the Armistice day disorders in the Piazza Popolo, Rome, between fascist and members of the "Italia Libera" organization of dissident fascist, the central committee of the latter organization as well as General Papino Garibaldi has issued manifestos protesting against what they term the unwarranted attack by the fascist upon unarmed ex-soldiers, and accusing Premier Mussolini of being personally responsible.

Both manifestos were stopped by the Italian censor when the foreign correspondents in Rome attempted to cable their contents abroad. General Garibaldi's manifesto follows:

"Thousands of combatants, while accomplishing their most sacred duties today (November 11) the anniversary of the victory in Rome, were cowardly assaulted, revolver shots coming from an ambush prepared and carried out by members of the fascist militia."

"We, heirs of the Garibaldi tradition and representatives of the combatants for a liberties, denounce to the people the vile ambush, which dishonors the nation. The red shirts have always fought on all battlefields for the liberty of the people. Espagnols to our thoughts that today hands of the government, knowing we were completely unarmed, surpassed in baseness the past tyrannies."

"For what has taken place we consider directly responsible the head of the government."

General Garibaldi is indignant because the newspapers published his protest in censored form. He declared that, together with other ex-soldiers he would address an energetic protest to the king asking him to free Italy from turbulent factions and insure to all "that peace which since the end of the war has been vainly invoked."

He concluded: "I trust that the crown will not refuse to intervene in such a grave moment for the safety of the country."

A Rome dispatch Wednesday night said an official communication had been issued to the effect that "during the celebration in Rome of the sixth anniversary of the Italian armistice with Austria had passed off quietly."

Disturbances at Turin, Naples, Trent and various other towns were rectified by the official communication to be insignificant incidents without any consequences.

An previous despatch from Rome mentioned that several paragraphs in a story in the newspaper Sereno, regarding the disturbance had been obliterated apparently by government censors. The prefect of Milan, it was added, had ordered the sequestration of all of today's editions of the Courier de la Sera, the Avant Garde, the Giornale d'Italia, and the Gazzetta del Popolo, having published "inexact and exaggerated reports" of the incidents in Rome.

General Giuseppe ("Peppino") Garibaldi is a grandson of the great Italian patriot.

Pamlico Race to Be Run Today

(By The Associated Press)
BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—The two year old champion of 1924 racing season, the Pamlico, will be run today at Pamlico, with the running of the Pamlico future, $40,000 added, over the mile route.

Seventeen thoroughbreds have accepted the challenge in what is considered probably the most open race in the history of the event and which will be the favorite is problematical.

Stimulus, owned by Marshall Field, which won six of his last seven starts two colts by Man O' War—American Flag, of the Glen Riddle farm, and W. M. Jeffords' By Himself, H. P. ## SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mrs. F. L. Burdick,
Editor—
Phone 2222-100

Thursday was a day of entertaining and delightful sociability combined with meetings of clubs and organizations and the same gaiety continues today.

Miss Laura Holland entertained at bridge this morning, a honor of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Howard, of Nevada, Africa, who is visiting at the Holland home.

The chairman of social service committees of the city, met at luncheon today at the Blue Triangle Tea Room. Special preparations were made for the affair and it proved to be an enjoyable occasion. Covers were laid for 35.

The ladies of the Country Club committee, who will serve tea at the club this morning and while work for their primary object, a good deal of social pleasure was injected, making the morning pass most delightfully.

The women of Mount Vernon church are holding an all-day mission study at the church today to complete a course they have been studying for some time.

At 1 o'clock luncheon was served in the refectory.

Mrs. A. Rucker Parker is giving a reception this afternoon from 4:30 to 6 o'clock in honor of her niece, Miss Sara Sublett, whose marriage to Walter Koehler, of Atlanta, will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker on the evening of November 12.

The Music Study club is giving a musical tea at Confederate Memorial this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Informal Tea

Mrs. E. Walton Brown entertained informally at 5 o'clock tea Thursday at her home in Colonial apartments, complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. Norman Stockton, of Winston-Salem, N. C. The living-room and dining-room were a bower of autumn flowers and foliage with yellow predominating and the ensemble was strikingly pretty in the glow of yellow candles and shaded lamps.

The tea table had a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums and purple argemone.

The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Louis N. Dibrell, Howe Miller, James T. Cathin, Jr., Walter Waddill, Jr., Henry Leigh, W. L. Robinson, T. Randolph Perkins, Jr., J. E. Perkins, Harlan M. Martin, John E. Overby and her guest, Mrs. E. K. Vertner, of Luray; Misses Katie Green Guerrant, Nora Waddill and Martha Gray, of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Miss Sublett Honored

Miss Mollie Myers and Miss Bernice Booth were joint hostesses at a charming bridge party at the home of Mrs. George A. Myers, West Main street, Thursday afternoon, in honor of Miss Sara Sublett, whose marriage is soon to take place.

The rooms were decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums and lighted yellow candles in beautiful arrangement, and the tally-cards and card tables, also in white and yellow, gave a very charming effect.

The top score prize was won by Mrs. Irvin Booth and in the cut the cards the booty fell to Mrs. Wilbur Bowlin.

The guest of honor was presented a beautiful set of silver salt spoons. Those present were: Miss Sara Louisa Sublett, Miss Helen Sublett, Mrs. James Ray, Mrs. Wilbur Bowlin, Mrs. Emily Swain, Miss Lillian Pearson, Miss Elizabeth Martin and Mrs. Irvin Booth.

Glenwood Club Meets

Mrs. H. W. Whitaker and Mrs. J. C. Young were joint hostesses to the members of Glenwood Women's club Thursday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Whitaker.

After the business meeting, Miss Erna Anderson and Miss Nell Gull, gave delightful readings.

The guests were then invited into the dining room, which had been decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of yellow, where they enjoyed delicious refreshments, served buffet style.

Those present were: Mesdames Henry Clarke, Aubrey Terry, Ben Dodson, John Ramey, Leslie Pugh, Turner, Carter, Leslie Dyer, L. I. Ramey, George Gilbert, Harry Smith, Mrs. Geoffrey, Miss Gull, Miss Neal, Miss Hyler, Miss Anderson and Miss Barker.

The next meeting of the club will be held November 20, at the home of Mrs. L. A. Beckner.

U. D. C. Meeting

The Ann Eliza Johns Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at Confederate Memorial and had an afternoon of unusual pleasure. Mrs. Garland S. Wooding, president of the Danville Chapter, U. D. C., was present and gave a most interesting and enthusiastic report of the Virginia District convention which she recently attended in Norfolk.

Mrs. William Leigh, formerly historian of the chapter, who has been absent from the city for several years, was a guest of honor and made a talk that was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. M. R. Perkins, president of the A. E. J. chapter, presented several copies of H. H. Smith's "Character Sketch of Lee and Jackson," and orders were taken for more copies.

Mrs. A. R. Carrington was appointed to present the distinguished service medal which is to be bestowed by the U. D. C. chapter of Rocky Mount, N. C., upon Col. Sydney W. Minor of this city, a N. A. M. I. D. Y. Several new members were given a cordial welcome by the older members, among them being: Mrs. C. K. Meurs, Mrs. C. C. Johnson, Mr. Frank Schuler, Mrs. J. A. Tye and Mrs. Bailey Witt, of Witt.

After the speeches and business had been concluded, the members and guests enjoyed a pleasant hour over the teas.

Witt-Miller

Calvin Brown Witt and Miss Martha Miller, of Rockingham county, arrived in Danville Wednesday afternoon and were united in marriage at the parsonage of Calvary Methodist church, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Gresham. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Witt returned to their home near Reidsville to live, the groom being engaged in farming.

Present Plans

Mrs. E. B. Young was hostess to the Shakespeare Club and several friends at luncheon Wednesday afternoon. She presented a very attractive program of one-act plays for the entertainment of the club members yesterday afternoon.

As a prelude to the program, Miss Laura Moore, teacher of English and director of the Danville High school Dramatic Club, made a short talk in which she stressed the cultural and social value of the Dramatic Club in the school.

The first play presented by her students, "A Man On The Curb," by Albert Suro, was a very sad, little play in which Miss Emma Starling and Julian Meade acquitted themselves excellently.

The second, a very sprightly, brilliant and mirthful play, by Arlo Bates, was interpreted by Anne Ferrer and Robbie Yeatts. Dick Rogers Hoffman Culpepper, Mary Franklin, Grady Howard and Elizabeth Tate, each in costume.

The audience was greatly pleased with the entire program and complimented the readers most heartily.

At the conclusion of the program, Robert Knudsen, of the community chest campaign, made a talk explaining the reasons why such a fund should be raised.

REPORT SHOWS GOOD WORK OF TRAVELERS' AID

Problem Emphasizes Necessity of Chest Drive's Success

The report of the activities of the local Travelers Aid society indicates how effectively they are approaching the hordes of travelers who arrive in the city in need of one or more of the services that in organization is in a position to render. The following represents the great variety of the appeals that constantly come to their attention. During the past year 3,444 trains were met and aid given 6,938 people. The services are classified as follows: 5,696 minor acts and 555 major services.

The problems presented to the worker included:

Lack of knowledge of the city, 1,554.

Runaways returned to parents, 8.

Physical disability, resulting from sick people coming from hospitals after using wheel chairs, 70.

Failure to meet friends or relatives as expected, 653.

Taxis secured for friends to come to meet strangers, 165.

Charity cases among those above for which money was spent, 6.

People placed on right train or street car, (most of which were old people or children), 128.

Temporary shelter secured (clients who could pay), 175.

Temporary shelter secured (could not pay), 25.

People directed to trains, lunch room and baggage rooms, 2,590.

Furnished covers to many people who waiting to take late trains for other points.

Sent many long distance telephone calls and telegrams at expense of organization, while trying to aid travelers.

Classification of those helped: Women, 2,636; men, 1,546; young women, 1,445; girls, 327; boys, 345; colored women, 93; colored men, 51; colored girls, 22; colored boys, 13.

The society reports with pleasure the work played by the Lealand hotel for taking care of a number of girls who had come to Danville and stranded here.

It is services such as are listed here that the agencies that are banding together in the Community Chest are going for those in need and indirectly for the citizens of Danville indirectly. The big appeal for the fund necessary to maintain this work will be made the week of November 17, when a parade will be made at that time available over the entire year. Nine agencies in the city are lined up with the chest.

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM SYDNEY CARTON TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

Dear Jack: You must have thought it very strange that I have not in some way acknowledged the receipt of your two last letters or the wire announcing the death of Mr. Hamilton. I have been up at Gordon Phillips hunting lodge in the Adirondacks for the last two weeks and you know how far that is away from the outside world.

I told my secretary the morning I left to wire you where I had gone but in the rush she forgot it. You see, my secretary is not as perfect as Mrs. Altherton.

I arrived home this morning and found your long letters and wire. You know, old man, if I had been home I would have been with you through all this trying time, for out-aside of all things I have always had for Mr. Hamilton, my friendship for you and Leslie would have made me feel that I must do something to lighten your load.

I read your last long letter over very carefully. It seems to me that you have the great opportunity as well as the great responsibility of your life. Mr. Hamilton has placed a huge load on your shoulders and I am really sorry for you, man, instead of glad, because this magnificent business which he has left in your care will claim the best years of your life.

The next ten years at least all your waking hours and probably some of that should be given to sleep will be filled with work of brain and hands so arduous that you will only be a galley slave tied to the oars of the great god—Money. I am almost sure that you will be a success in this business, although you say that you know little about it.

I wish I were as sure you were going to be happy. I wish I were as sure that you were going to make Leslie happy. It will take a strong man, Jack, to keep the proper balance between your soul and your overweening ambition to become a financial power. It will take a stout heart to keep you from growing more self-contained and selfish, from thinking that you are of greater importance in your business than you are in your home. God grant that you may be that strong man.

Yes, I know that I am always a brute and a croak and that is why I will never be a rich man. Some way I always have to sit on the sidelines and analyze the plays that are made in the game of life by my friends, even though I cannot play the game as well as they do.

The whole world, Jack, that is your little world, when it hears that you are going to take over this great business, will consider you the luckiest man in all the world but I knew a long time ago when you married Leslie Hamilton that this was true. I can't understand why it is that you yourself have not come to this conclusion long ago.

But for all that I confess that I would be rather frightened if I were called to step into the shoes of a man such as Joseph Graves Hamilton.

THE DOUBLE-DESS IDEA

The double-dress idea, so prevalent this season, is accomplished in this style by means of a separate, sleeveless guimpe. You could make the dress, the patterns for which cut in sizes 16 years, 36, 38, 40 and 44 inches bust measure, of a soft woollen material, poplin, one of the new ribbed silks or satin and have several guimpes of different materials, so that when one becomes soiled, you could easily slip in a fresh one. A little suede belt lends a decidedly smart finishing touch.

In the 36-inch size, 3 3/4 yards of 42-inch material with 1 1/2 yards of 36 or 40-inch for the guimpe is required. Price 15c in stamps or coin (coin preferred).

HELPFUL HINTS

SLEEVE PROTECTORS

The legs of old stockings make good sleeve protectors when you are doing dirty work.

FOR STIFFENING

Gum arabic is preferable to starch for stiffening laces, thin silks and dark colored fabrics. It is used in the proportion of one tablespoonful of the powdered gum in three quarts of water.

TO CLEAN MATTRESS

Use the vacuum cleaner frequently on the mattress to insure its freedom from dust.

USE ALCOHOL

You can clean soiled photographs by sponging very lightly with a bit of absorbent cotton wet with alcohol. Let it dry by evaporation.

TO KEEP PASTRY

Leftover pie crust or pastry should be rolled in cheesecloth wrung dry of cold water and kept in the refrigerator. It will be good for a week or more.

TO MEND HOLE

When a hole appears in a rag carpet caused by the breaking of the warp you can mend it by stitching back and forth on the sewing machine.

SAVE YOUR HANDS

Wear loose cotton gloves when doing your sweeping or dusting and your hands will be free from dust which is so difficult to remove if it gets ground into the flesh.

FASHION NOTES

PUTTY SHADES

Putty shades are very much liked in wools and silks for gowns for all occasions.

INTRICATE DESIGN

Intricate tailored designs are prominent in all styles whether the silhouette is straight or flaring.

NEW MATERIAL

A new material for dresses is a gabardine weave with a decidedly crepey effect.

SMART SLEEVES

Pleated ruffles outline the wrists of the very smartest sleeves and they extend for over the hand.

FLARING SIDE

The flaring side and the narrow hipline is the combination fashion is partial to at this particular time.

SEAMS IMPARTANT

The underarm seams of tailored frocks have become important a step point where tailored decorations, usually buttons, are introduced.

HIGH POCKETS

Very high pockets on the newest coats and dresses bear out the belief that the directoire line is growing in popularity.

SMART COATS

Kasha-lined coats are very smart and very warm. They are very popular in Paris.

A SHORT WAIT

LADY—I would like a dress in the very latest fashion.
ASSISTANT—Take a seat for a moment, madam—the fashion is just being changed!—Strix (Stockholm).

AGREES FOR PAYMENT OF U. S. ARMY COSTS

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Premier Herriot as minister of foreign affairs today laid before the chamber of deputies, a proposal calling for ratification of the agreement for reimbursement of the United States for the costs of maintenance of the American army of occupation in the Rhineland. The agreement was approved by the foreign affairs committee of the chamber in May, 1922.

Representatives of the United States and of the allied powers signed an agreement in Paris May 25, 1923, providing for repayment to the United States of $250,000,000, the costs of the American army in the Rhineland. Under the agreement payment was to be made in twelve equal installments with interest.

BOY LEAPS 5 STORIES TO ESCAPE POLICE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A sixteen-year old boy leaped five stories from the roof of a tenement house late today in an effort to escape from police and a crowd of men who were chasing him on suspicion that he had entered and robbed a rooming house. Although both his legs were broken and he suffered internal injuries, he crawled into a nearby basement and remained undiscovered for some time.

The boy, who said his name was William Keith, was in a semi-conscious condition when found, and was taken to a hospital.

Takes pills for years—finds first permanent relief in Kellogg's Bran

Have you found permanent relief from that terrible disease—constipation? The woman whose letter follows discovered—as thousands have discovered—that Kellogg's Bran succeeds when all else fails. This is because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be so effective. This is what she wrote:

"Gentlemen: I am so wonderfully happy over my discovery, I feel I must tell the world about it. For years I have been ill continually from constipation, always resorting to pills or the like, never having any permanent relief until I heard of your Krumbled Bran.

Every morning I take two table-spoonsful before my breakfast—and since the latter part of August I must admit have not experienced one sick spell which I have had for years. I have started my little girl of four years on your Bran, and already I have noticed a change in her. I thank you. Name and address furnished on request. Write the Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation. Eat at least two table-spoonsful daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Money returned if not effective.

Notice the wonderful nut-like flavor. This flavor is delicious—so different from ordinary, unpalatable bran.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, made in Battle Creek, is served by America's leading hotels and clubs. Demand Kellogg's Bran. It will bring back your health. Start eating it today. Sold by all grocers.

CHURCH IS DOMINANT IN MISSION TOWN

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., Nov. 6.—Persons of every religious faith have united in a movement to make the church dominant in Cape Girardeau. A fund subscribed by business and professional citizens maintains three illuminated sign boards and systematic newspaper advertising during the year. Each church also advertises separately.
The newcomer is greeted with this sign opposite the union station: "Cape Girardeau—A city of churches, schools and substantial business institutions, where the home is paramount and where the church is the foundation of the community life."
The city's daily newspaper, each year gives a dinner at which pastors and a few laymen from each congregation discuss plans for unified church work. All churches at the last meeting reported unprecedented increases in attendance and budget.

District Stewards Make Assessments

(By The Associated Press)
ST LOUIS, Nov. 6.—The first $1,000,000 of the $50,000,000 endowment fund that Southern Methodist University has pledged to raise for the benefit of super-annuated ministers of the denomination, has already been paid in cash subscriptions to the super-annuate headquarters in St. Louis, it was announced here today by Dr. Luther E. Todd, executive secretary of the Board of Finance.

"Sixty thousand dollars a year, is thus already assured for the super-annuated and their dependents as long as time lasts," said Dr. Todd. "As this money has been invested in first class securities as fast as it has been received."

Judging from the way the subscriptions have recently been pouring in on the paid-up list, Dr. Todd expressed the belief that the second million will be raised with even greater ease than the first.
$2,000,000 Per Year.
It was explained that the Methodists' purpose is to collect the entire $10,000 during a period of five years at the rate of $2,000,000 per year. Each church is expected to contribute to this fund during these five year periods a sum equal to the combined amounts paid to the pastor and presiding elder during 1922-23.
As secretary of the Board of Finance, Dr. Todd sends throughout the church a weekly bulletin showing the participation of the various churches in the fund. According to the latest reports, the churches belonging to the two conferences in the state of North Carolina, namely the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina conference, have contributed $5,344 during the week ended Saturday, Nov. 1. This report, it was said, included the following churches: Front Street, Burlington, Park Street, Belmont; Wesley Memorial, High Point; Gregson, Durham; Long Memorial, Roxboro; Edenton; Elizabeth City district; and West end, Winston-Salem.

Read Insurgents Out of the Party

(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—In an editorial summary of the election, the New York Evening Post, owned by Cyrus H. K. Curtis, yesterday called upon Republican leaders to read out of the party all insurgent senators who have refused to follow the party program. The editorial says in part:
"The renegade or the statesman who believes his own wisdom is greater than the collective wisdom of his own party will do well to take the lesson to himself. The time has passed for any further coddling of that little group of wilful men which includes Senators Norris of Nebraska, Couzens of Michigan and Hiram Johnson of California. If they will not see and do not repent, the time for them is outside the pale with the Brookharts, the Laddes, the Frasers and LaFollettes. Let them be read out of the party with bell, book and candle, once and for all."

VIRGINIA AMATEUR FIELD TRIALS DERBY IS RUN

(By The Associated Press)
ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 6.—Lady Jill Westfield, owned and handled by Thomas P. West of Roanoke, won first place in the derby stakes in the field trials of the Southwest Virginia Amateur Field Trials association here today. Second place was won by Roanoke Cotton Blossom, owned and handled by Dr. F. S. Schultz, of Roanoke, while Yendor Junior, owned and handled by Clarence W. Williams also of this city, won third place.
At a bench show this evening, Radford's Lizzie Reid, owned by R. C. Kunkel, of Pulaski, Va., won the blue ribbon for the highest honor of the show. The four first place winners of the best setter dog, best pointer bitch, best pointer dog and best pointer bitch were competitors for the honor. Radford's Lizzie Reid was the winner in the best setter bitch class and won in the final award.

Have You Piles?

Then You Have Something to Learn

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.
Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonard was first to find the remedy. His prescription, HEMOROID, is now sold by all druggists. Dr. Leonard tried it in 1000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 88 per cent and then decided it should be sold under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Miss Dolly Collins, sister of the bridegroom, accompanied them to Danville, whither they motored from Leakeville. The marriage occurred about noon.

Armistice Day to Be City Flag Day

The American Legion, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Retail Merchants' Association request the citizens of Danville to display the Stars and Stripes on Armistice Day, Tuesday, Nov. 11th.

The Avenue of Flags through the business section of Main, Graghead, and Union streets will be provided that day.

It is hoped that before another patriotic celebration the Avenue of Flags will be extended to include the business section of North Main street. The vision of "every home having a flag flying" is what is being anticipated. The small coat of the flag will make it very easy for this to be realized.

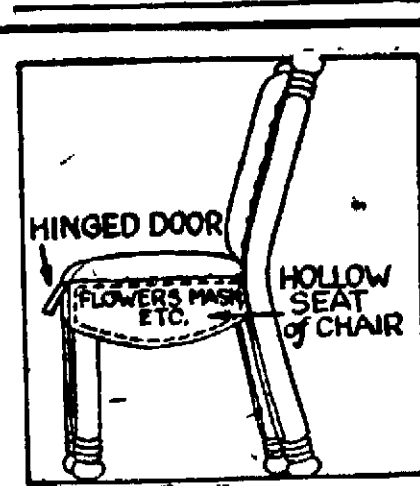

It has been suggested that residents Main, West Main, South Main and North Main take up the movements and fly a flag or more from the front of every residence. Decorations are advised and requested by those in charge of the Armistice celebration not to festoon the national flag, but when it is displayed let it fly free.

The three organizations named are co-operating in preparation for the community celebration of The Day and are endeavoring to bring about unity and general participation.

While nothing is said about it specifically, the city has an abundance of large flags, relics of the war period which may be gotten out of storage and given an airing on November 11th. The municipal building, courthouse, all the banks, hotels and even the churches have large flags which might be displayed to add to the note of patriotic color.

One of the few criticisms heard of the Masonic Temple is that the building corporation has inadvertently overlooked any provision for a flag-staff on the Main-Union corner of this towering structure. Time yet remains to provide this and to fly a large flag from that elevation on the 11th.

All the words used during a presidential election placed end to end reach no conclusion.

Tricks of FAKE
MEDIUMS

MAKE SPIRIT FLOWERS
During the course of a seance, the medium causes the "materialization" of spirit flowers that are found lying in the center of the table—even though he was thoroughly searched before the lights were extinguished. The presence of the flowers is attributed to the spirits.

The flowers are "materialized" from the seat of the medium's chair, which is hollow, and provides ample space for concealing a number of articles.

The chair is also used to conceal paraffin molds (which were described in a previous article), and other objects that the medium can make use of.

52 REPUBLICANS,
39 DEMOCRATS IN NEXT SENATE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Omitting contests in Iowa, Minnesota and New Mexico which still are in doubt the Republicans will have 52 members in the next senate, the Democrats 39 and the Farmer-Labor one. There is one vacancy in Connecticut which is to be filled at a special election next month. The following list shows the senators who held over; those elected last Tuesday and the contests yet undecided.

Alabama—Oscar W. Underwood, Dem.; J. Thomas Heflin, Dem., re-elected.

Arizona—Henry F. Ashurst, Dem.; Ralph H. Cameron, Rep.

Arkansas—Thaddeus H. Caraway, Dem.; Joseph T. Robinson, Dem., re-elected.

GRIGGS WILL HANDLE SCHOOL CHEST WORK

The solicitation of the teachers in the public schools as well as the small contributions of the school children in the coming Community Chest drive will be handled by Superintendent W. C. Griggs of the Public Schools who has asked that job be assigned to him. Mr. Griggs said that he was anxious to do his part in the city wide drive and that he felt he could be more effective in the schools as they can carry out the big drive that will be staged the week of Nov. 17.

Copper Cooking Utensils.
What is the danger of copper poisoning from eating food cooked in copper vessels? The question as it comes before us is broader than that. It includes poisoning with tin, zinc, and lead, as well as copper, and poisons from the can as well as those from the kettle. Cooking utensils, as well as cans, are made from the heavy metals. All of the heavy metals are poisonous, from iron at one end of the line to arsenic at the other. That iron is always found in the body of healthy people, zinc nearly always, and arsenic occasionally has no great bearing on the question. Theoretically, a man can be fatally poisoned by iron, and every one knows that arsenic is a severe poison. Practically, there is no danger of poisoning due to the cooking of any kind of food in vessels made of iron, nickel, aluminum, and tin. The same statement is almost true of vessels made of copper and zinc.

A British writer recently advocated nickel cooking utensils. He said they cleaned easily, were not roughened by vinegar, acid fruits, rhubarb, or other weak acids, nor by alkalis; while a little of the nickel went into solution in the cooked food, it was never considerable enough to cause poisoning nor even to approach that. Authorities say of cooking in copper pans and kettles that theoretically there may be some poisoning, but practically there is none. Not even verdigris is as poisonous as people think. Some copper goes into solution in the food, but the amount is small.

Copper vessels usually clean well and take a good polish. Tin and zinc as materials for cooking utensils and for cans is somewhat in the same category. Both metals go into solution in the food. But the amount dissolved is not great. It is practically never approaches the level where the product could be called poisonous. The danger of lead is somewhat greater. Cooking utensils are not made of lead, but can be soldered with a compound containing it. Sometimes beverages come in contact with lead and in most water systems the water touches lead somewhere in its travel to the faucet. In canning no solder is kept out of contact with the food. Lead is more poisonous and more soluble than are the other heavy metals. If water is not fairly alkaline it will dissolve lead. If it contains it, it will dissolve it. Sometimes natural water supplies, particularly where the water comes through peat, or is except-tionally pure and soft, will dissolve enough lead to bring it up near the poisoning level.

Cheap glazes on earthenware and enamelware contain lead, and some of it may go into solution.

All in all, there is very little danger of cooking or eating any food in any metal. Lead is about the only exception.

Diet For Baby.

Mrs. H. S. C. writes: What is a proper diet for a baby 6 months old? She says mother's milk every three or four hours through the day, but does not seem satisfied. Is she too young for cereal? If not, what kind do you recommend? Can she have any soups or broths of any kind? She seems well and has two teeth when she was 5 months old and she weighs 14 pounds.

REPLY.
Feed at four hour intervals from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. In addition to breast milk give her orange juice or the juice of canned tomatoes, thin cereal, and boiled milk. And one part water to two parts milk.

One month later begin with thin soups.

Follow with finely mashed, well-cooked vegetables, and hard breads.

Not Out of Danger.
Mrs. S. J. C. writes: My baby is 19 months old. He had a bad case of diphtheria a few months ago, and since then his heart has been weak. About three weeks after the hoarse-ness left his heart beat very fast and skipped beats. It would beat four times and miss one and sometimes it would beat ten without skipping, and he got so weak he could not walk any more and was sort of blue in the face.

Do you think he will outgrow this? Is it a disease? Is it dangerous?

REPLY.
My guess is that your baby had diphtheria. The toxin of the disease affected the muscles and nerves of the heart. He is not out of danger. He should get all right unless through some over-exertion with the next few weeks his heart stops beating without much warning.

TEA
Drinking more tea? If not, you're behind the American procession. The British this year are selling us 137 pounds of tea for every $2 pounds last year.

Such things do not happen by chance. In this case, the reason is advertising. British interests, as you've noticed, have been advertising heavily, portraying tea temptingly, urging its use. Advertising talks to tens of thousands while the individual salesman talks to one.

Smashing Attack On "Red" Grange

(By The Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A smashing attack to combat the ground gaining and point scoring propensities of "Red" Grange, Illinois, backfield ace, was Chicago's chief weapon in its attempt to batter the Illinois from the western conference pinnacle here Saturday.

The veteran Coach Stagg has a forward wall which he has drilled to break through the Illinois defense and spill Grange's interference and hurry the passing of Zeppke's backs as well as to hold the Illinois line and open the way for Chicago's plungers. Injuries affect Illinois' potential battlefield. Harry Hall, Lou Slimmer and Wallie McIlwain will be handicapped if they participate.

An injured foot may keep Captain Stenger of Michigan out of the melee with Northwestern at Ann Arbor. Ohio's preparation for Indiana at Columbus is designed to result in marking up another tally in the Buckeye's won column, while the Hoosiers aspire to make the game an opportunity to emerge from the cellar position of the conference.

Wisconsin's interference is polishing up for Notre Dame. Rockne's men may be compelled to use substitutes for Captain Walsh, center, and Studelreher, quarter.

FOOTBALL'S BIRTHDAY

(By The Associated Press.)

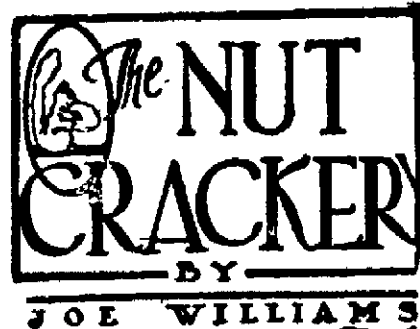

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Intercollegiate football today celebrated the fifty-fifth anniversary of its birth. The gridiron game in America had its inception in a contest between teams representing Rutgers and Princeton Nov. 6, 1869.

The game at that time resembled rugby more than the present style of play. Princeton, Rutgers and Yale drafted a set of rules in 1873 modeled upon the "association" code and in 1876, Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Columbia formulated a modified Rugby code which formed the real basis of the modern game.

FRESH MILK

Cocoanut milk supposedly is good for the complexion. Miami, Fla., girls here are counteracting beach sunburn with a dose of cocoanut medicine, just off the tree.

NIGHT GOLF

By the use of electric lights it is now possible to play golf at night. Mr. Edison has a lot of crime to answer for besides the talking machine.

The difference between night golf and day golf is very clear. In day golf only the players are lit up.

The night golfer will have to have an official song and it might as well be, "By the Light of the Silvery Moon."

Any night golfer scoring the daylight equivalent of a birdie, eagle or cuckoo shall be credited with an owl.

Night golf opens a prolific field for brand-new alibis, to wit:

"I'd had a threat the seventh if the darn fuse hadn't blown out."

"How in the name of Cleopatra's pet can you expect a guy to putt with all them owls hooting?"

"Well, if that milkman hadn't yelled 'whoa' just as I started to shoot you'd seen something."

"This is the worst course I ever saw. I'm going to report the electrician to the house committee."

"I'd just as soon have a gun go off back of my ear as an alarm clock. There ought to be a law against cad-dies carrying them."

Night golf has its drawbacks. . . .

An actor playing a New York course stepped into one of the floodlights and took so many bows the coppers had to be called to straighten out the congestion.

The energetic American golfer now works in triple shifts, on a 24-hour basis. This ought to make the steel riveters and bricklayers of the country feel pretty small.

The well-dressed night golfer will always appear at the first tee in hand-colored pajamas. . . . The old-fashioned flannel night gown is out.

The Prince of Wales is expected to knock 'em stiff at night golf. The kid never seemed able to get up in time to play a game of day golf.

Night golfers who are three sheets to the wind are advised to remain away from the course. . . . Some one may mistake them for klansmen.

V. M. I. SQUAD STARTS FOR CHAPEL HILL

LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 6.—The V. M. I. Flying Squadron will leave here tomorrow morning for Chapel Hill, where the cadets and North Carolina University will stage their fifteenth meeting on the gridiron. The team will arrive at Chapel Hill too late in the evening for practice but a light workout is planned somewhere en route if practicable.

Besides Captain Carl Hammond and 25 other players the V. M. I. party will be composed of Coaches Blaney, Clarkson and Bill Raftery, Trainer Quinlan, Manager Hatchett, and Cadet Representative Holt.

The probable line-up is as follows: Center Wilson, Guards, Hammond and McCracken, Tackles, Clements and Hope, Ends, Pillow and Barker, Quarterback, Caldwell; Half-backs, Foster and Harmeling; Full-back, White. These men are in good condition and are prepared to put up the fight of their lives against the Tarheels.

PINEHURST TOURNAMENT FOR AMATEUR GOLFERS

Amateur golfers will have their inning at Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 21 and 22 when the Virginia-Maryland tournament will be held.

This tournament will be open to all amateur golfers from Virginia and Maryland. Appropriate golf prizes will be offered by Pinehurst. Incorporate, which will include a prize to the low medalist in the qualifying round, the winner's runner up and consolation for the first sixteen. The players qualifying below the first sixteen will be divided into groups of eight and two prizes will be given for each eight.

The inter-state tournament between Virginia and Maryland players will be arranged for four-ball matches, best ball, scoring three points to a round. A shield will be given to the team from the winning state and will be held by the club represented by the largest number of players on the winning side.

This tournament will be preceded by the Mid-South amateur best ball tournament and on the Nov. 20 by the Mid-South best ball tournament, both very interesting events to golfers.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The amateur athletic union has received a bid for the 1925 indoor national track and field championships from Louisville, which proposes to conduct a three day meet ending with the title events on Feb. 23, the day officially set by the A. ## TRI-FINALS IN SCRAPS FOR BIG TEN CROWN TO BE PLAYED SATURDAY

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Six western conference football teams are ready to take the field tomorrow in games that virtually are the tri-finals in the scramble for the Big Ten crown. Four others finish grooming today for non-conference contests, of which the feature is the Notre Dame-Wisconsin match at Madison.

Illinois, favorite contender for the title, is prepared to undergo an acid test with Chicago, its nearest competitor. Coach Stange has drilled his line into a stiff defensive wall and an offense calculated to break through and stop "Red" Grange, Illinois back-field ace. Coach Zuppke, of Illinois has, a determined squad, in good shape with the exception of Wallace

Four Americans Imprison Themselves to Fight Ter- ror—Two More Die

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Two additional victims of pneumonic plague, now prevalent in Los Angeles, died within the last 24 hours, bringing the total dead from the epidemic to 28 since its inception last month. Six new cases were discovered in the quarantined area.

With a corps of nurses and physicians making regular inspections of the quarantined area, health authorities today were hopeful that all remaining positive and suspected cases would be brought to light and isolated. In all, about forty suspected cases are under observation. The official list of positive cases since the outbreak of the epidemic last month is thirty-eight, twenty-eight of which have proven fatal.

Vigorous rat extermination campaigns are underway in the harbor districts, in the quarantine areas, and in Pasadena, north of here.

WOMEN AID IN WORK.

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—Four Americans who voluntarily imprisoned themselves within the quarantine barrier which has been thrown about plague swept Little Sonora, the Mexican quarter of Los Angeles today were bringing order and relief to its panicky inmates.

The quartet are Miss Nora Sterry, principal of the Macy Street school, which is the center of the district, the Rev. James G. Doty, pastor of the Baptist Mission in Little Sonora, Mrs. Doty and Miss Clara Neilson, a missionary worker.

With their campaign of relief and sanitation well under way, the health authorities believe that a strangle hold has been got on the dread pneumonic plague, which already has caused 25 deaths and predict that the disease will be rapidly stamped out. The Red Cross flag today flies over Miss Sterry's school, where she hoisted it, beneath the stars and stripes as soon as she had been able to talk her way into the quarantine zone to take charge of the relief work.

And 650 Mexican children, who before had regarded Miss Sterry as a sort of extra mother, are sure—now that they see her in her Red Cross uniform—that she means all that is good and helpful in the world.

Miss Sterry's ample figure, her graying hair and her smiling eyes will become the Red Cross garb, and her kindly voice, constant thoughtfulness and gentle exercise of authority qualify her for the work she is elected to do at whatever risk to herself.

"I spent almost an entire day trying to persuade the authorities to let me take over the work," Miss Sterry said when she found time from her many tasks to come to the quarantine rope for an interview. "We were so much better equipped here at the school than the health officers were. We have complete information on file of every file in the district and know just what they need. And I had been exposed—so that did not matter. School had been held up to Friday night, although the plague had not its appearance until the week before. So finally they let me come in and do the work that should be done."

Miss Sterry's staff of three American helpers felt much the same way about it that she did. The Rev. Doty and his wife moved into the mission house although their home is outside the district so that they could be quarantined and help with the relief work. Miss Neilson, who was out of the district when quarantine was established, talked her way in to her post of duty. Her argument that she, like Miss Sterry, already had been exposed, finally won for her.

But Miss Sterry insists that her staff is not limited to those three. "All the people in the district are helping," she says. They are used to coming to the school and doing things as a community down here in Sonora town.

"We are housing in the school-house those persons who live outside, but were caught within the district when the quarantine was put into effect. Cots and bedding have been sent in by the Red Cross. Provisions also have been sent in and we are serving meals to the hungry here at the school. The men up there on the steps are waiting to get in now. They must be pretty hungry."

The men in the line saw her gesture toward them and because they were eager for food, but the policeman who stood by was sure the cheers were for Miss Sterry.

"We are getting a little volunteer help that we did not expect," Miss Sterry said with a twinkle. "One young man came down out of curiosity and managed to get inside the quarantine line. Now he's one of us. A bill collector came in, which he felt must be attended to despite the epidemic. The policeman grinned when he insisted he had to come in. But the policeman would not let him out again. He's assigned now to the dish washing squad."

SPORTS

Players who have used both say there is no difference between wood and iron-shafted clubs.

Jimmy Brownson is one fight manager who specializes in boxers developed in army camps.

It is debatable whether Tommy Gibbons, or Harry Wills is the best defensive batter in the game today.

A professional golfers' league may be formed in Florida this winter, with pros stationed at the larger resort cities making up the league.

Gene Tunney, light heavyweight champion, thinks he can beat Tommy Gibbons at golf. Gibbons is said to be the best lighter-golfer in the land.

Leo Flynn says Jack Renault is twice as good as Bill Brennan ever was. Flynn managed Brennan and now handles Renault.

The records of the football games to date show that the team that scores first is about a four to one favorite to win the game.

Only four pitchers in the National League, Vance Mays, Grimes and Cooper, won 20 or more games.

The veteran Walter Johnson scored more victories than any other American League pitcher with 23.

Jesse Barnes, of Boston, former star pitcher of the New York Giants, suffered the most defeats in the National League, 20.

Catcher Wally Schang says Beall, the Yankees' rookie pitcher, has a better curve ball than any right hander in the American League.

Second Baseman Marty McManus of the St. Louis Browns is said to be dissatisfied with his berth and wants to be traded.

Notre Dame has been playing the Army since 1913 and the best showing West Point ever made over that period was the scoreless tie of 1922.

Two eastern eleven will invade the coast late this season. Syracuse will play Southern California and Pennsylvania will meet Andy Smith's great California team.

Mandell Fights Bernstein Tonight

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Sammy Mandell, of Rockford, Ill. meets Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, at Madison Square Garden tonight in a 12-round contest expected to be the first step in providing an opponent for lightweight Champion Benny Leonard in a title bout during the indoor season.

The winner of the battle will meet the victor of a Sid-Terris-Luis Vicentini fight arranged for later in the month. The ultimate victim among the four contenders will then be matched with Leonard who is said to have promised Tex Rickard to fight once during the indoor season.

Friends are queer people who think you should take more exercise, sniffs Kelly Lewis.

FOOTBALL QUESTIONS

If You Have Some Question to Ask About Football Write—

LAWRENCE PERRY,

Special Football Correspondent of The Bee, 814 World Building, New York

QUESTION—An end on defense runs the half on offense fifteen yards back toward his own goal on an end run. A penalty for ten yards is called on the offensive side. As the penalty called for only ten yards and the loss to the offensive side on the play was fifteen yards, we protested and wanted to refuse the penalty. The referee refused and said it was not our gain but their loss and we could not refuse the penalty. Was he right?

ANSWER—If the foul occurred before the loss on the run was effected the foul takes precedence to the loss of ground by the runner being forced back. But the referee was wrong in not permitting the penalty to be refused, as all penalties for fouls under the rules may be declined.

QUESTION—Our quarterback was returning a punt and had a clear field ahead. But at the 25 yard line the defending fullback fell and his head struck the quarterback on the heels causing him to fall to his hands and knees. The impact caused him to plunge six yards ahead where he had fallen and here he regained his feet and could have advanced. The referee put the ball in play where he had first fallen. We argued that the ball should be first down where the impact occurred. The referee while we were arguing, and I know we had seven minutes left to play, time was called. Should time have been taken out even if our captain had not called for it?

ANSWER—Ball should have been down at farthest point it was carried. Time should not have been taken unless requested.

CATS LIKE MUSIC

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—Professor Heinrich Blotow believes that the cat of the world can be educated to an appreciation of classical music. He has three pet cats that he keeps constantly in front of his phonograph while he plays a variety of music. The animals will listen attentively to the classics, but they run away when he puts on jazz records, he says.

STATE SECRETARY THOMPSON OF BOYS' WORK IN CITY

State Y. M. C. A. Boys' Work Secretary, Fred D. Thompson, spent yesterday in Danville in the interest of the District Older Boys' Conference to be held here November 14, 15 and 16th. Mr. Thompson and City Boys' Work Secretary Jack Whittington, also, visited the High School at Gretna and Long Island in the interest of the conference. At 7:30 last night Mr. Thompson met the Hi-Y Club of the Danville High School and conferred with the various committees in the planning of the conference. Mr. Thompson expressed himself as being pleased with the prospects for the conference. He says a splendid program is assured, and a large attendance of delegates is confidently expected.

Chest Budgets
Given Approval

At the luncheon of the Kiwanis Club Thursday noon at the Blue Triangle Tea Room the members listened to two talks on the coming month's Chest drive by Frank Talbott and Robert W. Kneebone, who is assisting in the drive organization work. Mr. Talbott said that during the past year he had not given any of his time to drives as he had worked last fall in the big chest drive. He indicated that the budgets of the various agencies had been very carefully gone over by a board made up of the business men in Danville, and that these agencies could operate on and at the same time give the effective service for which they were noted in the past.

Mr. Talbott said concerning the approaching drive. Every man and woman in Danville who can possibly do so should give gladly of his or her time in making this drive the most successful that Danville had ever known. Every person should greet an invitation to serve on one of the working teams with a smile and that the subscriptions should be taken as a pleasure with the hope it would build Danville through the work of these splendid agencies.

Mr. Kneebone outlined the plan of dividing the city into four districts, equal geographically and the organization of industries of the city for internal solicitation.

Kiwanian James Lee gave a remarkable Andy Gump impersonation and outlined his policies and the reasons for failure to be elected. This was very much enjoyed by members of the club.

MAGNUS JOHNSON IS
ST. PAUL, Nov. 6.—Returns from 3,488 precincts out of 3,607 in Minnesota give for U. S. Senator: Schall (R) 375,551; Johnson (F-L) 365,488; Farrell (D) 50,089.

Methodists Plan
Year's Finances

The stewards of the Danville district, M. E. Church, South, met here yesterday at eleven o'clock at the Sunday school room of Main street Methodist church with Rev. S. J. Battin presiding elder, presiding and Rev. C. J. Blair, secretary. Answering the roll call, the following stewards were found to be present: L. T. Green, Bassett, F. H. Martin, Danville circuit; E. G. Moseley, Cabell street; C. A. Gregory, East Halifax; C. T. Womack, Martinsville; J. S. Tulloh, South Halifax; J. D. Hodges, Sutherland; L. A. Bryant, East Pittsylvania; J. R. Boyles, West End, South Boston; J. W. Yarbrough, Calvary; J. A. Smith, Sligo; Memorial; J. T. Catlin, Sr., Main Street.

Present also were Rev. C. E. Blankenship, of Richmond, educational secretary of the Virginia conference, and J. F. Rawles, of Suffolk, missionary secretary of the Virginia conference, both of whom appeared and presented their causes to the stewards.

Other visitors at yesterday's meeting were Rev. W. E. Jett, of Martinsville; H. F. Turner, East Halifax; Rev. R. W. Yow, of Pittsylvania; Rev. S. T. Senter, D. D., Mount Vernon; Rev. T. A. Smoot, D. D., Main Street; J. W. Giles, Chatham; Rev. E. M. Beckham, Ferrum; O. E. Carter, of South Halifax, and O. H. Kerns, Danville.

The business of the morning included an expression from the presiding elder in which he congratulated the district for the fine report made to the recent conference, but deplored the fact that not all of the obligations had been met.

The Joint Board of Finance of the conference has made assessments to the district as follows:

General work, $9,555; conference work, $19,208; Blackstone $2,000. The sum total of the assessments is $202 in advance of last year's assessment.

These assessments will be apportioned among the several churches on the basis of the pastor's salary for the past year. The salary of the presiding elder was determined at ten per cent of the pastors' salaries during the present conference year. An additional assessment of one half of one per cent of the salaries of the pastors of the district for the upkeep of the district personnel was made.

Just before adjournment James T. Catlin was asked to make an address at the first quarterly conference on the Conference Brotherhood.

DAILY PUZZLE

The drawing contains five stars. Start at one star and draw a series of connected straight lines, which will pass through all the stars, and return to the starting point. The dotted lines show how the result may be accomplished with five lines, but you must do it with less straight lines, and with as few crossings as possible.

Yesterday's answer: . . . . . With a block weighing 270 pounds, to be moved on a six-foot plank, the man capable of carrying 180 pounds should have the block set two feet from his end of the plank. Thus he would receive 180 pounds (2-3) of the burden.

Dreams
each has its own
MEANING

Long before prohibition became the law of the land, dreams scientifically recorded, destined serious consequences for those who imbibed too freely.

To see yourself intoxicated should warn you that you were facing serious consequences in love and affairs. To be jovial over a cup of wine may mean that you will soon be with jovial friends but that mistakes of a serious character are likely to follow.

Interpretations

To drop and break a comb means that you will lose the admiration of many of your friends.

To be grazing out across a field where cows are peacefully grazing denotes contentment of mind. You will soon be in new surroundings if you see yourself carrying a bucket while walking.

DANVILLE GRAYS WILL BANQUET ON WEDNESDAY

Announcement is made of a dinner or banquet to be given at the Hotel Burton on next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This gathering of the officers and men around the festival board is expected to stimulate interest and renewed enthusiasm in this command. Danville's youngest, albeit the man is the oldest of the various military units of the city, Captain Harry T. Adkins and his fellow officers are greatly pleased by the commendations the command has won on its merits, and is constantly developing in efficiency. At the recent encampment of the 248th Artillery at Fort Monroe Battery B's service designation of the local company, made an excellent record.

COOLIDGE GETS SLIGHT

Take Salts For a
Kidney Backache

Drink Lots of Water All Day
Long to Keep Kidneys Flushed.

Too much rich food forms acids which excite and overwork the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Flush the kidneys occasionally to relieve them like you relieve the bowels removing acids, waste and poisons else you may feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headaches, dizziness, the stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the one to get channels often get irritated, obliging one to get up two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, begin drinking water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.

This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water soda, which millions of men and women take now and then to help prevent serious kidneys and bladder disorders.

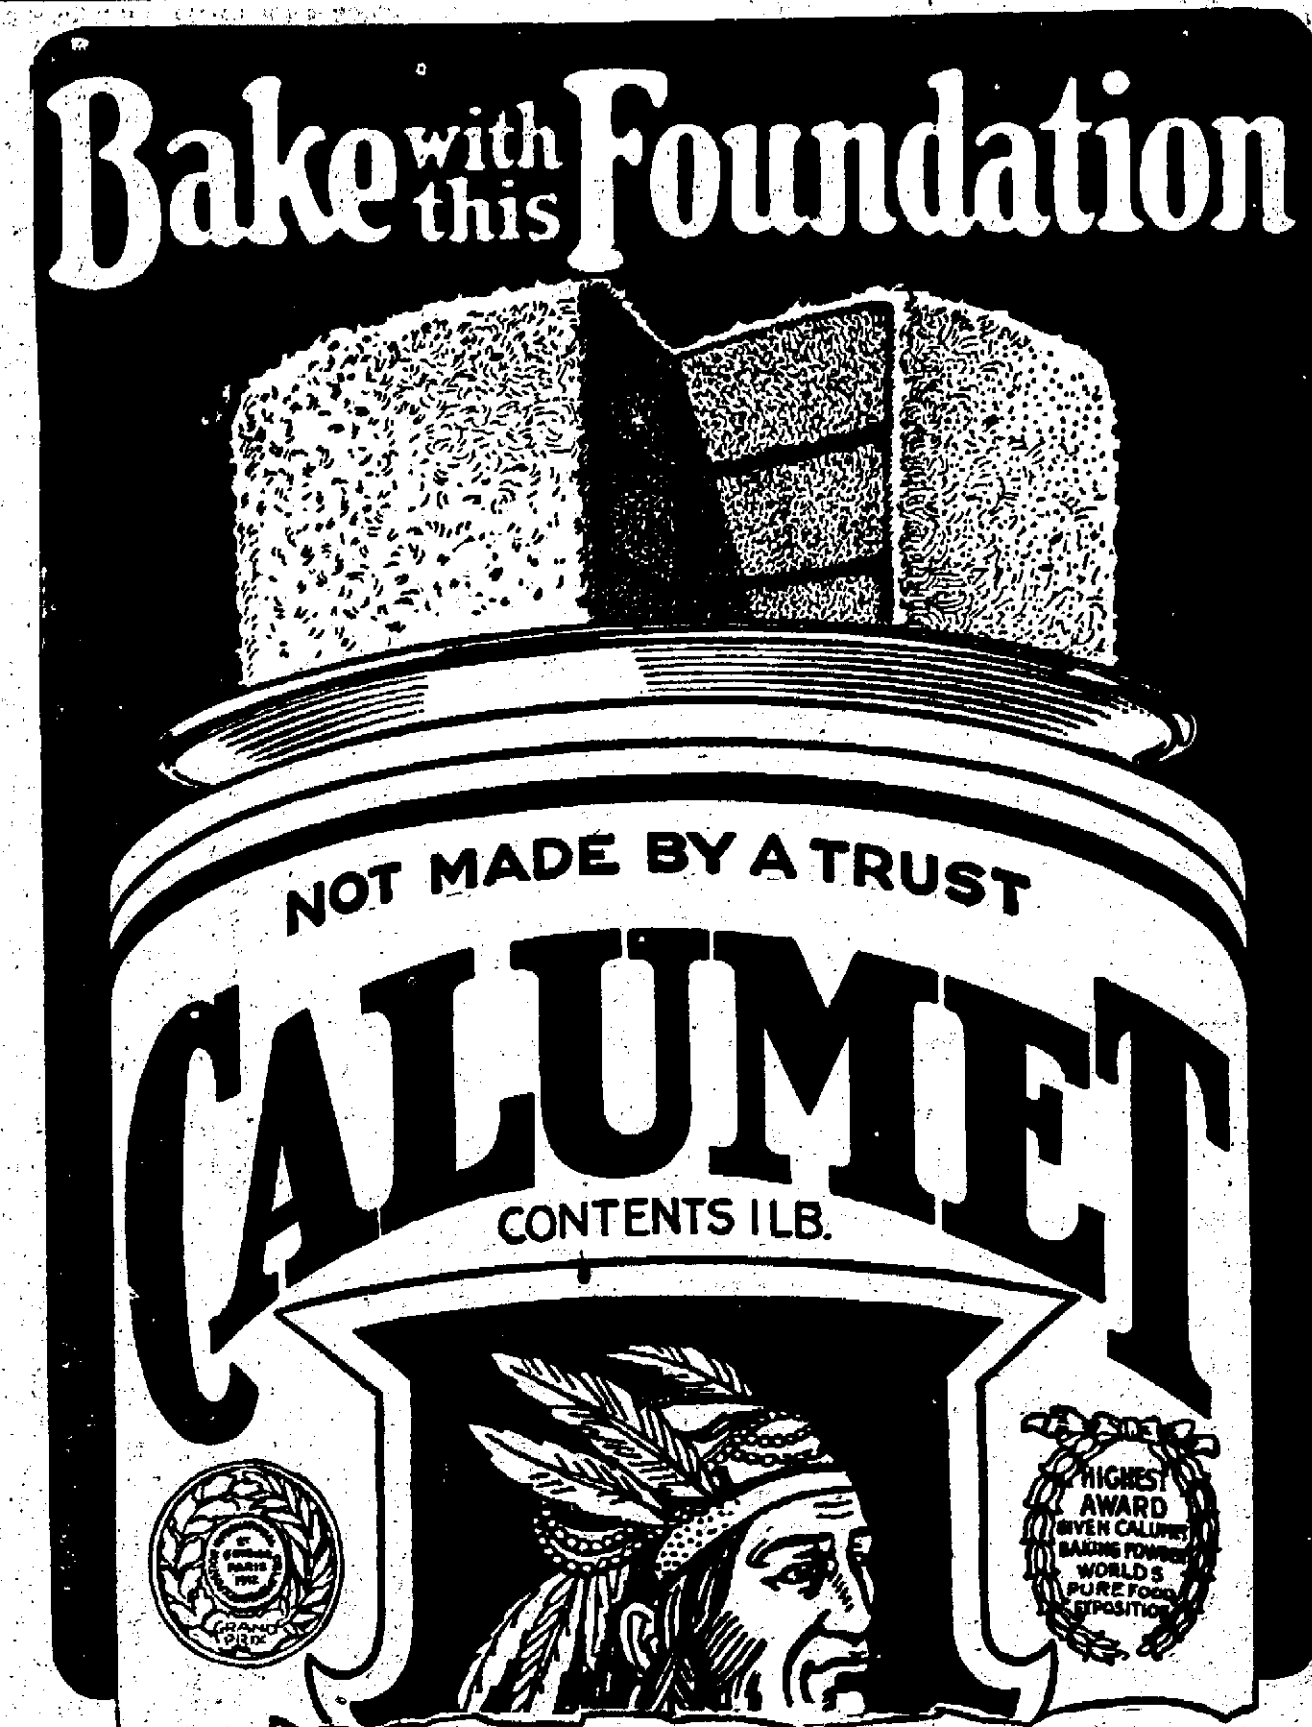

By all means, drink lots of good water every day. Have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—adv.

SOCIAL WORKERS WILL
LUNCH TOGETHER TODAY

Social workers of this community will take luncheon together at the Blue Triangle Tea Room today at 1 p. m. For the last year it has been the custom of the employed officers of the various welfare organizations to get together occasionally for fellowship and for a discussion of their mutual problems. The organizations to be represented are: Danville Health Department, Juvenile Court, Community Welfare Association, Schoolfield Welfare Department, Wesley House, Hilltop Sanitarium, Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A.

Brief reports from several of these organizations will be given and the Publicity Director of the Community Chest Campaign, will make a short address.

Cynthia Grey Says:

MARGINAL NOTES ON MARRIED LIFE

Don't envy the woman with another I am not popular with my men career. There's not one of them who wouldn't gladly change her typewriter for your baby buggy or her law office for our kitchenette.

The only contented husband is the one who's in love. Make sure that it's you that your husband stays in love with.

Really all you need to do to be a successful wife is to smile like Mary Pickford, cook like Mrs. Rorer, save like Hettie Green, bring up the children like Mme. Montessori, make your own clothes like Lord Duff Gordon, wear them like Gloria Swanson and kiss like Nita Na'Id.

Keep yourself young and attractive. No husband can quarrel with a woman in a frilly apron and just the right touch of rose-color on either cheek.

To please a husband is like balancing yourself on a tight rope. Henry VIII divorced Anna of Cleves because she was too homely and headed Ann Boleyn because she was too beautiful.

QUESTIONS—ANSWERS
Miss Grey—I try always to tell the truth to people, and lately I have got into trouble by doing so. Why is it that people can't stand to hear the truth about themselves?

AGNES
There's nothing sner in the world than to hear people tell the truth but not to the point of hurting others. There is such a thing as a silence that is more kindly and just as moral as the unpleasant truth about people.

Dear Miss Grey Somehow or

G. S. C.
Do you make it a point to talk well?

The type of girl that all men prefer, really, is the one who is good fun and good company.

Mrs Grey Is very hot water or extremely cold water best for the face?
G. S. C.
Neither. Tepid water about the same temperature as the skin itself is best followed by a dash of cool rose water.

FAIL TO ALLOT ROAD FUNDS AT MEETING

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 6.—Although the state highway commission remained in session here all day another meeting for the purpose of allocating funds for 1925 can be announced. That was the statement of Chairman H. G. Shirley when the meeting was adjourned at 5 o'clock this evening. Another meeting will be held next week or the week following Mr. Shirley said.

Only about $3,000,000 is available this year for allocation to the eight construction districts of Virginia's highway system. This, with an additional $1,000,000 which can be used for closing up gaps in the system places $4,000,000 at the disposal of the commission, as against $4,457,000 available in 1924.

Allocations to districts are made on the basis of area, population and amount of state highway system mileage. The percentages of distribution are virtually the same as last year, which were:

Richmond district, 14.66; Lynchburg district, 12.56; Culpeper district, 11.32; Staunton district, 12.80; Fredericksburg district, 7.31; Suffolk district, 14.09; Bristol district, 12.60; and Salem district, 14.03.

CROW INDIANS GIVE COOLIDGE BIG VOTE

(By The Associated Press)

HARDIN, Mont., Nov. 6.—President Coolidge received a large majority over La Follette and Davis in the first ballot cast by the Crow Indians, according to returns today from the Crow reservation agency. The count gave: Coolidge 143; Davis 22; La Follette 26. The Indians were given the right of franchise during the latter part of the Harding administration.

BIGGEST POPULAR VOTE EVER GIVEN NOMINEE

(By The Associated Press)

DENVER, Nov. 6.—President Coolidge has polled the largest popular vote ever given a candidate for president in Colorado. With 57 precincts still out, the president's popular vote is 132,918; J. W. Davis polled 75,381 and Robert M. La Follette 56,409. The previous popular vote record was made in 1916 when Woodrow Wilson received 178,816. Warren G. Harding polled 173,248 in 1920.

Conservative guesses estimate the energy used by a candidate in shaking hands would milk every cow twice.

PREMATURE OLD AGE OF WOMEN

It is no secret that so many women suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex. Dark circles appear under the eyes, a pale, drawn, haggard expression to the countenance, and the weakness which accompanies such ailments is evidenced by the lagging step, headaches, backache and nervous conditions. Every woman who is afflicted in this way should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which for half a century has been overcoming some of the most stubborn ailments of women—adv.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga. (Adv.)

LAST MINUTE PHOTOS WHO'S WHO WHAT'S WHAT IN THE NEWS

Same Years and Years Ago as It Is Today

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
As today, man only thought he was boss 25,000 years or so ago, according to Mrs. G. G. MacCurdy (right), shown digging up bones of Aurignacian man—said to be most ancient of our ancestors yet found—near Lyons, France.

Looks It

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Mrs. Jean Nash, called best dressed woman in Europe, made this pretty picture when she arrived in New York to visit her mother.

It's a Good Trick, If You Do It!

At fall carnival on Huntington, N. Y., estate of Henry L. Stimson, ex-secretary of war, Miss Alice de Forest (above) was contestant in apple race, in which competitors ride fifty yards, duck in pan of water for apple, then race back to starting point, keeping apple in mouth.

Father Disowns Children

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Denying he was father of Bobbie (left) and Audrey Ainslie, George J. Ainslie, said he had made agreement with Mrs. Harriet Haddon, director of girls' school to care for children for five years, then she could adopt them if she wished.

Kind of Snappy, Say We. What Do You Think of Them, the Styles of Ten Years Ago?

Speaking of fashions, these flashily costumed members of the fair sex were the cynosure of all eyes at the Astor races at Sheepshead Bay track, N. Y. So snappy were they that they attracted the attention of a passing photographer. O, yes, it might be stated in passing that the photographer was passing 'way back in 1913.

Investigations Under Way to Fix Blame for Death Crash

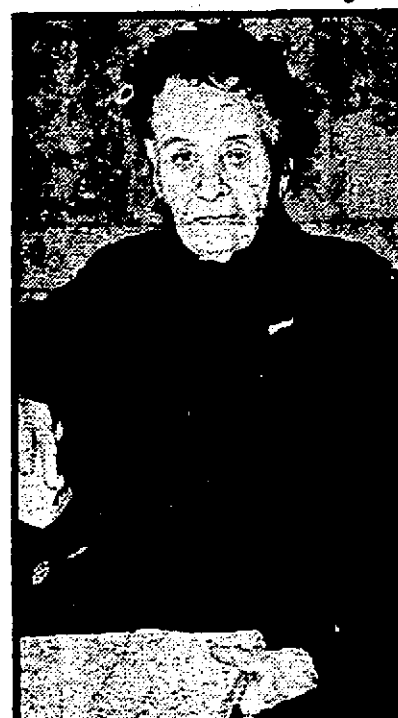

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
At least ten persons were killed and thirty-one injured when a freight train backed into crowded street car in Chicago, cutting car in two, as photo shows. Crossing gates were up, gateman declaring he did not see approaching train.

Six Forest Fires Threaten Many Homes

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
At risk of their lives 500 men fought forest fires that menaced six sections of New York and New Jersey. For many hours, taking no rest, these men fought valiantly to stem forest blaze sweeping down on Suffern, N. Y.

101st Birthday

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Mrs. Sarah P. Smith (above), noted suffragist, celebrated 101st birthday in Brooklyn, N. Y., home the other day. She said politics didn't interest her now, but approved women voting.

Honeymoon in the Air

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
J. King Wallace and bride, both of Mineola, N. Y., took honeymoon journey in plane piloted by J. P. Andrews (left). They were married at Elkton, Md.

Sister Accuses Sister

Suzanne Riley
While father was asleep in home near Moravia, N. Y., Suzanne Riley killed him with iron bar, sister Myrtle told police. Suzanne denies charge.

Myrtle Riley

Music While You Polish Teeth

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
In amateur contest at radio show in N. Y., Dorothy Nestell brushed teeth to music coming in on crystal set on handle of brush.

Perfect 32

By surgeon's knife slicing off sixty-three pounds of fat, Truly Shattuck (above), musical comedy actress, has reduced waistline from 50 inches to a comfortable 32.

PURDUM PUTS REFRIGERATOR ON TRUCK FARM

Can Now Keep His Surplus Production Indefinitely In Hot Weather

Work has been completed on L. W. Purdum's refrigerating plant which has been reared on his truck farm near the city and which has caused a good deal of interest not only because of the ingenuity of the automatic mechanism but because of the promptness of the $12,000 investment. The refrigerator which has been reared by a Baltimore concern is housed in a two story frame building, the "ice box" measuring forty feet by sixteen and being thoroughly insulated by cork and other impervious material. The refrigeration is created by the operation of an electric motor which drives the mechanism which chills the numerous coils placed above the refrigerating space and across which the air is constantly passing. Warm air rises and passing over the frost coated pipes is chilled causing the cold air to descend, thus setting up the automatic rotation of the air within the cooling chamber. The mechanism is attached to a thermostat. When the temperature reaches 36 degrees Fahrenheit the motor is set to work and it runs until the temperature has dropped to 32 degrees when it stops. Nearby is a water tower and a special device which enables to constant utilization of the same water in the pipe system.

The refrigerator is the first of its kind in this section and will be of great saving to Mr. Purdum. He has a large farm which is intensively cultivated and of recent years he has been struck by the loss sustained by vegetables and fruit being spoiled. It will now be possible for him to keep in a cold condition his over production giving him the opportunity of marketing it more leisurely and sparing him from that loss which is experienced when the demand for fresh vegetables is not as large as the abundant supply in full season.

Mr. Purdum at some expense a few years ago installed a watering system on his truck farm which virtually makes him independent of rain for his crops. In the hot season from ground pipes which spray large areas of his farm. His ingenuity in producing crops has been marked in many ways. A year or two ago when insects threatened to do him great damage, he established on the fertile acres a number of arc lights which he burned at night. These attract millions of insects which are found littering the ground the next day. This ruse has done much towards reducing damage to growing crops by insects.

MORNING COTTON LETTER
(Thomson & McKinnon)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Cables are strong. The south has mostly clear weather. Forecast is for rain for entire belt except Oklahoma. Worth sheet had a native business in prints and Fall River reported a better demand.

The break in the late trading yesterday was due to local and southern selling and by those who bought early on a strong stock market and large milling buying.

The action of the market indicates that a crop of 13,000,000 bales has been discounted and we believe the market purchase at these prices.

MORNING SUGAR LETTER
(Thomson & McKinnon)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Pressure of full duties has forced a modification in the offering price of Cuban sugars in preferred position and a further lowering of offers to a 3 1/2 cent basis to meet competition will likely develop during the day. The trade is placing only meagre orders for granulated preferring to wait the downward price revision, which appears inevitable as a result of the lowering of raw prices. Disposal of sugars we believe is justified around current levels.

NEW WAR?

Europe is in for considerable more trouble between 1925-1928, according to Abbe T. Moreux, director of the Bourges Observatory in Germany. The sun spots indicate it, he declares. And he has studied them more than 20 years. It was he who predicted the World War several years before it started.

MORNING GRAIN LETTER

(Thomson & McKinnon)

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Renewal of foreign buying of wheat and indications of improvement in the nearby situation are a great help to the market and also emphasize the source of supplies. Government report next Monday and holiday Tuesday may modify the advancing tendency.

MORNING STOCK LETTER
(Thomson & McKinnon)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—There is a good sized bear element here. The short interest is growing. This should be considered a good news. It is hard to buy a market without a short interest. Some of them won't admit they are bears but the world judges by action and not by words. Have you a better railroad market than what we have right now? If you are in doubt about the industry in which you have a commitment there is no law against switching in to good railroad stocks, and I think it is time to have a little interest in some of the good oil stocks. Remember that the election not only elected the right people but endorsed the source of the French Premier.

The German Journal finds that M. Herriot's trousers are badly cut, and never appear to have been pressed. That the waistcoat is far from perfect, and that the coat is French atrocity, fitting only where it touches.

TAILORS' EYE ON HERRIOT
PARIS.—The official organ of the German master tailors has been comparing the garments worn by President Ebert and M. Herriot—to the detriment of the French Premier.

The German Journal finds that M. Herriot's trousers are badly cut, and never appear to have been pressed. That the waistcoat is far from perfect, and that the coat is French atrocity, fitting only where it touches.
